Featured Writer: RICKY LEWIS

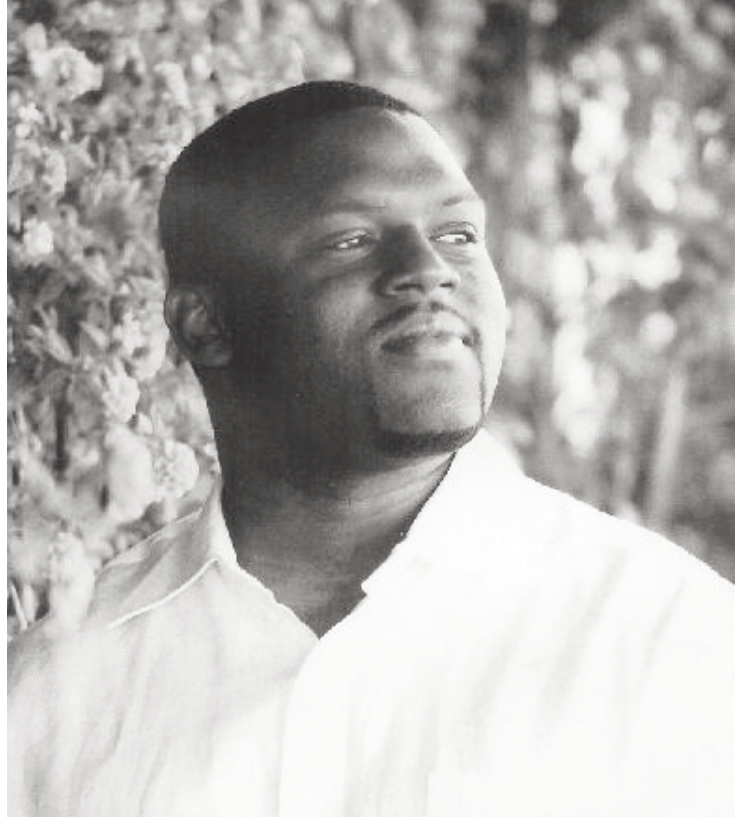

Ricky 'Ric Rude' Lewis has been working this full-time job since the year 2002 when he first broke in with his featured track on Hip Hop sensation Busta Rhymes' 'It Ain't Safe No More' release. His placement served as a worthy introduction that the demonstrative songwriter/Producer, was indeed a force to be reckoned with.

With a Discography that includes hits for Busta Rhymes, Guerilla Black, Ray J, Big Noyd, Fantasia, Destiny's Child, Avant, Onitsha, Joe, and more, no one can doubt that not only is Rick Rude a star, he's diversified in his writing/production style like no other.

Born and raised in Los Angeles, where he still resides, Rick's dedication paid off when he began producing on a host of superstar albums (Guerilla Black, Fantasia, and Destiny's Child) in 2004. A lush period for the Superstar Producer, he then landed two big singles on some of the major albums released, Fantasia's 'Free Yourself' featuring the hit "It's All Good," and Destiny's Child's 'Destiny Fulfilled', boasting the smash, "Cater 2 U," co-produced by supporter Rodney Jerkins.

With beats that bang like World War 3 in the back of your trunk, Grammy-nominated producer Ric Rude is fluffing the industry as if he's planning to make himself at home. Selling over 15 million records worldwide there is no doubt that this guy could bring to life melodies that manifest classic songs along with the greatest of artist. Ric Rude proves his equality through his works already provided: Avant's "Grown Man", Ray J's "Lets Play House", Joe's "If I Want Her", Fantasia's "It's All Good", and you've probably heard Destiny Child's "Cater 2 U" on everyone's ring tone. On the hip-hop side of things, Busta Rhyme's "Struttin Like A G.O.D", Slim Thug's Mixtape banger "The Game", Joe Budden's "Def Jam Diss", and Guerilla Black's "Trixx", which was the head song for NBA Street V3. It was nothing but God given hard work and talent that landed this young potential legend a contract with his favorite producer Rodney Jerkins in whom Ric credits a lot of his major success to. Ric Rude has a few more future surprises lined up for us including a few groups of his own from the Los Angeles area. Ric Rude quotes, "You are not going to be able to grasp what's about to go down, you're going to love us".

Ric Rude's specialty is the cleanliness of his production, and the flawless delivery of his tracks that catches the immediate attention of so many Artists. He's always been a producer able to find that source of connectivity in all of us. Upcoming placements include "If I Want Her" by Joe (Zomba) and "This Is Serious" by Onitsha (Hidden Beach). Stand back out there, RIC RUDE has arrived.

Scissors For Lefty (www.scissorsforlefty.com), have signed a Worldwide Administration deal with The Royalty Network, Inc., covering their catalog. Scissors for Lefty inked a deal with Los Angeles-based Eenie Meenie Records, who will release their anticipated sophomore full-length, Underhanded Romance, June 12. Voted "best up-and-coming indie band" by SF Weekly, the band has been setting off radars in both the U.S. and U.K., inciting NME to boast: "ambitious, sarcastic sophistopop... quirky, promising, and quite possibly 'awesome.'" High-energy rhythms, tongue-in-cheek sentiments, slick melodies and infectious charisma collide with great result on the group's Charles Goodan-produced/engineered (Beck, Santana, The Dust Brothers) and Mark Needham mixed (The Killers, Fleetwood Mac, Chris Isaac) label debut. Underhanded Romance is full of swaggering jams bringing to mind contemporaries Hot Hot Heat and Franz Ferdinand and at moments reminiscent of Pulp. Signed to Rough Trade Records outside of North America (Arcade Fire, The Decemberists, Belle & Sebastian), the group has performed alongside bands such as The Arctic Monkeys, Paul Weller, Dirty Pretty Things, Grandaddy, Metric and Blonde Redhead, among many others. Scissors's works are a welcome addition to our catalog.

We have entered into an exclusive Administration Agreement with Sanga Music, and it's related group of companies, including Applesseed Music, Howard Beach Music, and Stormking Music. This catalog consists of material recorded by Bob Dylan, Peter Paul and Mary, and the classic, "The First Time Ever I Saw Your Face". The Howard Beach Music catalog features works by composed by Arlo

Guthrie. Like his father, Woody, Arlo has carved out a career as a folksinger and songwriter with a social conscience who leavens political messages with humor, the highlight being the famous, "Alice's Restaurant". Finally, the Sanga Music catalog, which consists of Folk Legend Pete Seeger's works. Perhaps no single person in the 20th century has done more to preserve, broadcast, and re-distribute folk music than Pete Seeger, whose passion for politics, the environment, and humanity have earned him both ardent fans and vocal enemies since he first began performing in the late '30s. It quite clear the works of these catalogs will be worked efficiently throughout our company, to not only preserve the integrity of the works, but also to further expand their creative qualities.

Anthony Cruz p/k/a AZ has signed an exclusive Administration Agreement for his Life's A Bitch Publishing (ASCAP) catalog. Born in Brooklyn as Anthony Cruz, AZ first came to the greater rap community's attention in a big way after his stellar performance on Nas' "Life's a Bitch" in 1994. His debut album, Doe or Die, shook the New York hip-hop scene as Nas' Illmatic and Mobb Deep's Infamous had done shortly before it. Like Nas, AZ had Pete Rock crafting the beats, which won the young rapper instant credibility among the hip-hop community. When word hit the street that AZ was an official member of the supergroup known as the Firm, his status only rose higher. In 2002, he released Aziatic. From the album, "The Essence" was nominated for the 2003 Grammy Awards for Best Rap Performance By A Duo Or Group. With an extensive history of seven (7) full length album, and a new one due to drop later this year, it's no wonder AZ has been a staple name in the history of Hip Hop.

We recently signed a Worldwide administration Agreement with Carmen Sclafani (Wiser Time Music), www.wiser-time.com. Carmen Sclafani had been performing with various incarnations under the Wiser Time moniker when he came across music veteran/producer/guitarist, Anthony Krizan (Spin Doctors, Lenny Kravitz, John Waite), performing at a local club.

The two had shared a similar interest in the classic Rock and Roll sounds of 60s and 70s bands like Led Zeppelin and Aerosmith, and shortly after meeting began recording songs from Sclafani's catalog and writing material that would eventually become the self-produced 5-song EP titled, Introducing Wiser Time. Sclafani eventually brought in John Hummel, a seasoned studio drummer who was a member of several local bands including The John Ginty Band, featuring John Ginty (Robert Randolph, Santana, Citizen Cope). The trio would eventually be rounded out as a 4-piece with the addition of Todd Lanka on bass. Lanka had also been a well known and highly regarded musician in the local scene, and had performed with a number of acts including Todd Wolfe (Sheryl Crow, Leslie West). Wiser Time began playing select shows, adding various organ players for live performances, while completing the final few recordings of the debut album, There And Back Again, in the fall of 2006.
